

Constitution

K2BSA Amateur Radio Association

Preamble:

We, the undersigned, wishing to secure for ourselves the pleasures and benefits of the association of persons commonly interested in amateur radio and the Boy Scouts of America, do constitute ourselves the K2BSA Amateur Radio Association, hereinafter KARA, and enact this constitution as our governing law. It shall be our purpose to further exchange of information and cooperation between members, to promote radio knowledge, fraternalism and individual operating efficiency, and to so conduct KARA programs and activities as to advance the general interest and welfare of amateur radio in the community, especially within the Boy Scouts of America.

Membership — Article I

All persons interested in amateur radio communications and the Boy Scouts of America shall be eligible for membership. Membership shall be by application upon such terms as the club shall in its bylaws provide.

Officers — Article II

Section 1 – The officers of this club shall be: President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer.

Section 2 – The officers of this club shall be elected in January of even numbered years for a term of two (2) years by ballot of the members via online system. The online system must use available means to validate that only one vote per member is registered and that a simple majority of members (50%) have voted.

Section 3 – Nominations can be submitted by KARA members up to 30 days prior to the election. All nominations received will be placed on the ballot.

Section 4 – Vacancies occurring between elections must be filled by special election within ninety (90) days following withdrawal or resignation.

Section 5 – Officers may be removed by a three-fourths (3/4) vote of the membership.

Section 6 – The Trustee of the K2BSA FCC club license shall be appointed by the Executive Committee. Appointment and/or reappointment shall be at the time the license for K2BSA is renewed or when the office becomes vacant because of death, removal, relocation, resignation, etc. The Trustee may be removed from office and/or the office declared vacant for cause by a three-fourths (3/4) majority vote of the Executive Committee.

Section 7 – The Executive Committee shall consist of all elected officers and the Trustee. Also, the immediate Past President of KARA shall serve as an ex-officio member of the Executive Committee but shall have no vote.

Duties of Officers — Article III

Section 1 – The President shall preside at all meeting of this association, and conduct the same according to the rules adopted. He/she shall enforce due observance of this Constitution and Bylaws; decide all questions of order, sign all official documents that are adopted by the KARA; and perform all other duties pertaining to the office of President.

Section 2 – The Vice President shall assume all the duties of the President in the absence of the latter. In addition, he/she shall be responsible for planning and organizing KARA meetings and activities.

Section 3 – The Secretary shall keep a record of the proceedings of all meetings, keep a roll of all members, and submit membership applications. He shall also maintain a record of all club equipment, which reflects its location, condition, and disposition. The Secretary shall also carry on all correspondence, read communications at each meeting, and mail written notices to each member.

Section 4 – The Treasurer shall receive and receipt all monies paid to the club; keep an accurate account of all monies received and expended; pay no bills and incur no debt without proper authorization by the club or its officers in accordance with this Constitution and Bylaws. The Treasurer shall present a proposed budget to the membership in September of each year. At the end of each quarter, the Treasurer shall submit an itemized statement of disbursement and receipts. The Treasurer shall make available all records and materials of office for audit in accordance with this Constitution and Bylaws. At the end of the Treasurer's term, he/she shall turn over everything in their possession belonging to KARA to their successor.

Section 6 – The Trustee shall maintain a valid FCC license for the club station (K2BSA) and be responsible for its operation. This shall include accepting and approving applications for use of the K2BSA call sign for special Scouting events.

Executive Committee — Article IV

Section 1 – The Executive Committee, as defined in Article III, Section 6, shall be the sole governing body of the KARA, and shall answer only to the KARA membership for its actions.

Section 2 – It shall be the responsibility of the Executive Committee to interpret the Constitution. Based on its constitutional interpretation and directives of the KARA membership, the Executive Committee shall formulate the policies by which KARA shall be operated.

Section 3 – The Executive Committee shall function only as a group or unity. Its policy decisions shall be implemented by the President.

Section 4 – The Executive Committee shall authorize the expenditure of monies, not to exceed the amount specified by the Bylaws.

Section 5A – All decisions of the Executive Committee must be approved by a majority of its members (except as noted in Section 6 below).

Section 5B – The results of all votes shall be recorded in the Minutes of the meeting.

Section 5C – Each Executive Committee member shall have one (1) vote, except that the presiding officer (President), who may cast one vote when necessary to break a tie of the Committee.

Section 6 – The Executive Committee may, by vote of two-thirds (2/3) of its members remove any KARA officer from office, if in their opinion one of the following conditions exists:

- A. If, for any reason, the officer cannot fulfill the responsibility of his/her office and such failure to fulfill these responsibilities seriously affects the orderly operation of the KARA activities and/or business.
- B. If, the conduct of any officer should cause excessive dissention among KARA membership to the extent of disrupting normal KARA operation and/or wellbeing.
- C. If the conduct of an officer should be publicly adverse to KARA principles and policies, thereby causing a poor public image of the KARA.
- D. If an officer should be removed from office under this article, the office shall be filled by the terms of Article IV, Section 7.

Section 7A – A direct interpretation of any clause of this Constitution by the Executive Committee shall be made in writing, and signed by all Committee members, noting how they voted.

Section 7B – This interpretation document shall be placed in a constitutional interpretation log, which shall be maintained as a part of the Constitution.

Meetings — Article V

The Bylaws shall provide for regular and special meetings. At meetings, a minimum of one-third (1/3) of the membership shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Robert's Rules shall govern the proceedings of all meetings of the KARA.

Dues, Assessments, and Financial Management — Article VI

The KARA, by majority vote of those present at any regular meeting, may levy upon the general membership such dues or assessments as shall be deemed necessary for the business of the organization within its objectives as set forth in the preamble. Non-payment of such dues or assessments shall be cause for expulsion from the association within the discretion of the membership. At no time shall there be deficit spending.

Membership Service and Assistance — Article VII

The KARA, through designated JOTA, National Jamboree, International Scouting, Public Relations, and Operating Committees and other operations/activities will provide for and foster the continuing role of amateur radio in the programs and activities of the Boy Scouts of America and International Scouting.

Disbandment — Article VIII

Section 1 – The KARA shall be considered disbanded whenever:

- A. So voted by no less than two-thirds (2/3) of the qualified voters, or two-thirds (2/3) of the voters in attendance at a meeting, provided all members have been notified in writing that a vote shall be taken on disbandment of the club.
- B. When so voted by two-thirds (2/3) of the Executive Committee if no other members exist and/or can be found to conduct the business of the association.

Section 2 – In case of disbandment, the KARA assets shall be donated to charitable organizations, other clubs, or as prescribed by vote of the remaining members or Executive Committee if no other members exist and/or can be found to conduct the business of the association.

Section 3 – Officers and/or KARA members shall not receive any equipment, compensation, and/or personal gain from the disposition of KARA assets.

Amendments — Article IX

This Constitution may be amended by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the total membership. The Bylaws may be amended by a simple majority (50%) vote of the total membership. Proposals for amendments shall be submitted in writing to the membership by written notice at least one week in advance of a regular meeting. When amendments have been submitted in writing to all members as prescribed above and provided that all members have been notified of the intention to amend the Constitution and/or Bylaws, the amendments may be voted on at the regular meeting.
